

SUPERSTREAM – information for your employer clients

SuperStream is making super contributions super simple. As an employer, it means you need to pay super and send employee information electronically in a standard format.

The ATO is reminding employers to get ready for SuperStream and focussing on key industries where employers may need more support to implement the new requirements.

In the coming months, you may receive an email or SMS from the ATO outlining how to get ready for SuperStream and inviting you to an industry-specific online information session. You may also receive these messages from us.

The ATO's online information sessions are open to all employers and you can register now.

There is also a handy SuperStream employer checklist to help you get ready.

[Accounting professional business] can also help guide you through SuperStream – just call us on [phone number].

SUPERSTREAM – social media posts

We have developed social media posts for you to use to inform your employer clients about our online information sessions. You can tailor these for your own needs.

- > The ATO is offering employers across a range of industries tailored help and support to adopt SuperStream. To register for an online information session, visit <https://www.ato.gov.au/Super/SuperStream/In-detail/Education-and-events/SuperStream-employer-industry-webinars/>
- > Still not sure about SuperStream? The ATO has a range of support available. Register for an online information session to learn more - <https://www.ato.gov.au/Super/SuperStream/In-detail/Education-and-events/SuperStream-employer-industry-webinars/>